

Declaration of conformity acc. to RoHS

If supplied product is covered by the Government Ordinance No. 481/2012 Coll. that transposes the European Parliament and the Council Directive No. 2011/65/EU on limitation of use of certain dangerous substances in the electrical and electronic devices (RoHS), provide to the Customer copy of UE declaration of conformity.

If this duty does not pertain to the product please state this information in the Supplier's Declaration of Conformity according to EN ISO/IEC 17050-1 or, if appropriate, complete the Declaration with the statement that the product does not contain any other materials the application of which is restricted or prohibited by the RoHS Directive.

This Declaration is not required if the Supplier manufactures the product by following the Customer's documentation.
